If I were to state the obvious, that PEO compliance is complex, you would be justified in replying, "No kidding, Sherlock!" Just as any sleuth worth his or her salt has to gather, piece together, and make connections between seemingly disparate clues to reveal the truth, so do PEO operators as they seek and compile information to keep their companies and those of their clients compliant ...

Coming from a provincial bronze medallion firm, I honestly have no idea what all this is about. But trying to get my head around this, if I were a trans-woman and everyone at the firm thought that I was a woman, surely they could discriminate against me on the basis that they think that I'm a woman and they have an inbuilt prejudice that women are no good at law or whatever.
