Introduction. At the beginning of the 21st century, some researchers identified a "black box" between HRM and firm performance, since the intermediate mechanisms through which this relationship occurs had largely been ignored in the literature (Gardner et al., 2001). This situation has changed, however, as numerous studies now address this issue (see Jiang et al., 2012a for a review ...

A black hole is a region of spacetime exhibiting gravitational acceleration so strong that nothing—no particles or even electromagnetic radiation such as light—can escape from it. The theory of general relativity predicts that a sufficiently compact mass can deform spacetime to form a black hole. The boundary of the region from which no escape is possible is called the event horizon.
