Hungarian nationality law is based on the principles of jus sanguinis. Hungarian citizenship can be acquired by descent from a Hungarian parent, or by naturalisation. A person born in Hungary to foreign parents does not generally acquire Hungarian citizenship. A Hungarian citizen is also a citizen of the European Union.. The current Hungarian nationality law came into force in 1993.

International Citizen Service (ICS) is a volunteering overseas programme that delivers impact and creates. It's for the changemakers who want to contribute to long-term, sustainable projects in partnership with national volunteers and members of the community.. It's for the restless - those who are constantly pushing themselves to learn more, do more and change more.

The World Passport is similar in appearance to a genuine national passport or other such authentic travel document. In 1979 the World Passport was a 42-page document, with a dark blue cover, and text in English, French, Spanish, Russian, Arabic, Chinese, and Esperanto. It contained a five-page section for medical history and a six-page section for listing organisational affiliation.
