The first step of making borax crystal snowflakes is to make the snowflake shape. Cut a pipe cleaner into three equal sections. Twist the sections together at their centers to form a six-sided snowflake shape. Don't worry if an end isn't even, just trim to get the desired shape. The snowflake should fit inside the jar.

I like piping dots onto the snowflakes for added texture and cuteness :0) After about 24 hours or so, your royal icing snowflakes will be nice and dry. Once dry, they will not stick to the parchment at all. Simply (carefully) pick them up! My favorite part of the snowflakes is pearlizing them and adding a little sparkle.
