Who doesn't like to play classroom games?? Not only are games fun, interactive, and social, but they're also great tools for learning. With so many demands placed on educators to always be 'standards-focused,' game can seem like more of a distraction than an instructional tool (especially to principals passing by).

First government. From September 5, 1774, to March 1, 1781, the Continental Congress functioned as the provisional government of the United States. Delegates to the First (1774) and then the Second (1775-1781) Continental Congress were chosen largely through the action of committees of correspondence in various colonies rather than through the colonial or later state legislatures.
